EBLIP6: Valuing Knowledge and Expertise

Åsa Forsberg
Lund University, Sweden

Follow a Colleague: A Professional Development Project

Asa.Forsberg@lub.lu.se
Twitter:@asaforsberg

27-30 June 2011, University of Salford, England, UK
EBLIP6: Valuing Knowledge and Expertise

Carolynn Rankin
Leeds Metropolitan University, UK
Using the Generic Social Outcomes Framework to Map the Social Impact of the Public Library
c.rankin@leedsmet.ac.uk

Stop

27-30 June 2011, University of Salford, England, UK
EBLIP6: Valuing Knowledge and Expertise

Emma Thompson
University of Liverpool, UK
I’m a Business Librarian, Get Me Out of Here!
emma.thompson@liv.ac.uk
Twitter: @libraryEmma

Stop

27-30 June 2011, University of Salford, England, UK
EBLIP6: Valuing Knowledge and Expertise

Jennifer Ann Lyon
University of Florida, USA

Exploring the Experience of Providing Information Services at the Clinical Point-of-Care

Jalyon@ufl.edu

27-30 June 2011, University of Salford, England, UK
Joanna Tuck
St Catherine’s Hospice, UK
A Proposed Collaboration Between Palliative Care Education and Hospice Librarians
Joannatuck@stch.org.uk

27-30 June 2011, University of Salford, England, UK
EBLIP6: Valuing Knowledge and Expertise

Julie McKenna
Regina Public Library, Canada

Evidence-Based Management Decision-Making jmckenna@reginalibrary.ca
Twitter: @juliemckenna

Stop

27-30 June 2011, University of Salford, England, UK
Laura Newson Miller
Carleton University, Canada

Understanding the Needs of Graduate Biology Students laura_newtomiller@carleton.ca
Saga Pohjola-Ahlin and Sara Janzen
Karolinska Institutet University, Sweden

Improving encounters of the customer kind!

saga.pohjola-ahliln@ki.se sara.janzen@ki.se

27-30 June 2011, University of Salford, England, UK