EBLIP6: Valuing Knowledge and Expertise

One Minute Poster Madness

27-30 June 2011, University of Salford, England, UK
EBLIP6: Valuing Knowledge and Expertise

Ann De Meulemesster
University of Ghent, Belgium

A student usage survey as tool for collection management

Ann2.demeulemesster@ughent.be

27-30 June 2011, University of Salford, England, UK
Dale Storie
University of Alberta, Canada

Using a professional continuing medical education simulation to engage UG med stns in info literacy dale.storie@ualberta.ca  @dalestorie

27-30 June 2011, University of Salford, England, UK
Jonathan Eldredge
University of New Mexico, USA

Innovative features to an evidence based practice conference: a program evaluation

jeldredge@salud.unm.edu

27-30 June 2011, University of Salford, England, UK
Mary Dunne
Health Research Board, Ireland

Barriers and Facilitators to Research Use

mdunne@hrb.ie
EBLIP6: Valuing Knowledge and Expertise

Noriko Sugie
Surugadai University, Japan

Information Seeking Behaviour of Library Users

sugie@surugadai.ac.jp

27-30 June 2011, University of Salford, England, UK
EBLIP6: Valuing Knowledge and Expertise

Peter Stokes
Anglia Ruskin University Library, UK
Who does what? Creating an information seeking profile for nursing students peter.stokes@anglia.ac.uk

27-30 June 2011, University of Salford, England, UK
Phil Kroth
University of New Mexico, USA

Evaluation of an evidence-based scholarly communication conference focused on support of translational investigators

PKroth@salud.unm.edu

27-30 June 2011, University of Salford, England, UK
EBLIP6: Valuing Knowledge and Expertise

Ray Harper
University of Sheffield, UK

Innovative evidence-based strategies outside work

ray85_96@hotmail.com

27-30 June 2011, University of Salford, England, UK
Carrot or stick? Persuading academic staff of the benefits of using an Open Access Institutional Repository

ais173@salford.ac.uk
EBLIP6: Valuing Knowledge and Expertise

Therese Skagen
University of Oslo

Scoping PhD candidates’ interaction with information

therese.skagen@ub.uio.no

27-30 June 2011, University of Salford, England, UK
Tuulevi Ovaska
University of East Finland Library, Finland

Collaboration between nurses and librarians in promoting evidence based practice tuulevi.ovaska@uef.fi